

In Microsoft SQL Server management Studio

Steps: The following master tables will be created:

Student - store all student data across multiple classes

Subjects - master list of subjects taught in all classes

Classes - list of classes in the school